

Web Database (ウェブデータベース)

Website Address: 178.128.108.86

This manual is designed to explain the steps for new users using this web database that allows the search for the gloss for Classical Chinese Textbooks in Japan. You can find step to step instructions for using the website in this manual. There are two different websites with different functionalities and depending on the user's objective, the user should choose the website that would best fulfil his/her objective.

Homepage (178.128.108.86)

Brings user to a simple search page to search for the point's position using the appearance (color) and shape as the search requirement.

Shows the latest updates to the website

Brings user to a detailed search page to search for elements that meet more than one row of search requirements by setting the requirements on the point's position, appearance (color) and shape, etc.
